I had a Denon 3300 for a few years (in the 90's) and it worked wonderfully. Moved it on Craigslist when I upgraded to one of the first Denon receivers with HDMI (AVR 3806) a couple of years ago. Good to know that the "higher end" Denon's are still made in Japan. Guess you get what you pay for when you buy one of those <$500 receivers.
