I was pleasantly surprised when I started reading Return of the High Fae. I thoroughly engaged with the main character Robert Hoskins. He is a P.I. working in Vegas and during a case discovers he is not what he thought he was. The writing of this novel was superb and truly believable I found myself wanting to go and live there!

Return of the High Fae: A Vegas Fae Story: Keller, Tom ...

Return of the High Fae by by Tom Keller is the first in the Vegas Fae story arc. And I don't think I'm going to read the rest. It wasn't bad, per se, but it read like an episode of Scooby-Doo. It felt just entirely too tropey.. The story is written in the first person from the perspective of our protagonist (natch).
